

“You mean I will never have to lift another bag?”

WoodPellets.com is working to bring bulk delivery solutions to pellet consumers.

How do I get pellets in bulk?

WoodPellets.com is rolling out bulk delivery services this fall in selected areas of the Northeast, and plans to expand to concentrated areas of use nationwide.

- Bulk Delivery Trucks – Providing delivery of bulk pellets to residences
- Bulk Bins – Reusable bins of bulk materials to be picked up or delivered
- Bulk Pickup – Selected locations will allow consumers to pick up in bulk

Where do I store pellets in bulk?

WoodPellets.com is working with a variety of manufacturers of pellet storage equipment. The goal is to offer consumers a wide variety of choices, including:

- Indoor Storage Solutions – Such as basement/garage storage bins and bags
- Above Ground Storage – Such as silos, bins and storage sheds
- In Ground Storage – Underground storage with automatic feed into residence

Can my stove, furnace or boiler be fed automatically?

WoodPellets.com is working to bring to market several automatic feed systems, including systems for furnaces, stoves, and even retrofit kits to automatically feed stoves.
